(Progress report[®]) Notification of the Possible Uncollectibility or Delayed Collection of Receivables at Subsidiary Companies

Hirata Corporation ("Hirata") has announced the possible uncollectibility or delayed collection of receivables at Hirata's consolidated US subsidiary, Hirata Corporation of America ("HCA") on May 1, 2009, and also disclosed the progress reports of above fact on May 19, 2009, and June 4, 2009. Hirata today announced the debtor, Chrysler Group LLC ("New Chrysler" or the "Debtor") which has taken over the debt from Chrysler LLC (former Chrysler LLC), has made a partial payment of receivables amount as below.

1. Outline of the Debtor

(1)Trade name: Chrysler Group LLC

(2) Headquarters: Auburn Hills, Michigan 48321 U.S.A

(3)Representative: Chief Executive Officer Sergio Marchionne

(4) Main business: Manufacture and sales of automobiles and trucks

2. Detail Information

In October, 2009, HCA has been paid US$4,550thousand (¥414,415thousand), and collected partial receivables from New Chrysler.

As we've announced on June 4, 2009, the unrealized receivables was US$12,926thousand at that point, and the rest of unrealized receivables would be US$8,376thousand (¥795,701thousand) as a result of this collection.

3. Future Outlook

The aforementioned collected receivable has been set aside for extraordinary loss for fiscal year ended March 2009. Therefore, extraordinary income is expected to set aside for the current business year; however the detail is being fully examined at this moment.

Hirata Group will continue to make every effort to collect the rest of unrealized receivables.
